Mexico Explorer Trips

With its beautiful scenery, fascinating history and varied cultures, Mexico has so much to offer. For more than twenty years we have introduced thousands of people to the wonders of Copper Canyon and Baja, and we have expanded our Mexican destinations to include the wonderful states of Yucatan and Chiapas.

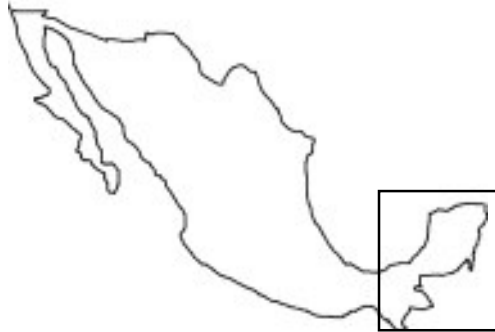

You can also combine these trips with a Copper Canyon adventure to create your perfect vacation.

Chiapas and Yucatan

Bordering the country of Guatemala, Mexico's state of Chiapas encompasses mountains, rivers, jungles and remote Indian villages. Here, people still wear their traditional costumes, live in grass-roofed huts and plant cornfields on near-vertical hillsides. On our trips to this region, we visit the beautiful colonial mountain town of San Cristóbal de las Casas and the villages of the Tzotil and Tzetal Indians, swim at the magnificent Agua Azul falls, travel by boat through the Cañon del Sumidero, and climb around the jungle-draped Mayan ruins of Palenque.

Northeast of Chiapas, the Yucatan Peninsula is the homeland of the Mayan people, whose mighty empire lasted over a thousand years. The amazing archaeological ruins of their great cities are found throughout the peninsula's almost 44,000 square miles—Chichén Itzá, Uxmal, Edzna and many more. Add lovely colonial cities and beautiful Caribbean beaches, and the result is a perfect vacation.

Yucatan & Chiapas

Small-group Escorted Tours

These small group tours are escorted by our experienced bilingual American guides. Group size is limited to a maximum of 16 persons. Prices include land transportation, accommodations, entrance fees, guided tours, many meals and most tips. Visit the Yucatan in 7 days or make the most of your trip with the 13-day Chiapas and Yucatan excursion. Both trips start and end in Cancun.

7-day Mayan Adventure

We explore the wonders of the Yucatan—ancient Mayan ruins of Chichén Itzá, Uxmal, Ek Balam, Tulum and Edzna; colorful colonial cities of Merida, Izamal, Valladolid; and Campeche, fortified to fight off Caribbean pirates.

1st Day: Our tour begins with our arrival at Cancun. We have free time to enjoy the white sand beaches, blue water, and great restaurants. In the evening, we join our guide for a welcome cocktail and introduction to the tour.

2nd Day: After breakfast, we travel to the walled fortress of Tulum. Overlooking the turquoise Caribbean Sea, the Mayan port has over sixty well-preserved structures within its massive walls. Then on to the ruins of Coba. Located around two lagoons, its elevated stone and plaster roads radiate out up to sixty miles. Finally, we drive to the colonial town of Valladolid, once a stronghold for Mayan rebels, who hid in a secret cenote (a natural well) to emerge at night and slaughter resident Spaniards. After lunch, we tour the town and the ex-convent San Bernardino.

3rd Day: Today we visit the archaeological site of Ek Balam, with its enormous Acropolis pyramid. Later, in the delightful city of Izamal, a magical town whose buildings are all painted yellow, we ride through the cobblestone streets in horse drawn “calesas.” Overnight in Mérida.

4th Day: From the mid-19th century until World War I, the major crop of the Yucatan was sisal, used for making rope. This morning we visit two of the fabulous haciendas that were built for this purpose, and then drive to Uxmal, one of the finest examples of an ancient Mayan city. In the evening we enjoy Uxmal's light and sound show.

5th Day: We continue our journey to Edzna. With its complex system of waterworks, the Mayan city was as an economic, political and religious center. The Great Plaza is spectacular, with its beautifully preserved buildings, including its five-story Acropolis. Then we travel to the colonial city of Campeche and visit the fort built to protect the city against the real "Pirates of the Caribbean." Overnight in Campeche.

6th Day: After breakfast we drive to Becal, where workmen in damp and humid caves weave panama hats. We continue our travel to Chichén Itzá, the most visited Mayan city. The Pyramid of Kukulcán, the ball court, the Observatory and the sacred well are only a few of the many sights in this huge archaeological zone. Tonight we will enjoy a light and sound show at Chichén Itzá and a farewell dinner at the hotel.

7th Day: On the way back to Cancun, we stop at Ik Kil Cenote, a sacred pool of Mayan royalty, where we can take a refreshing swim in the clear, clean water. For those departing today, we say good bye at Cancun Airport. For those wishing to extend their stay, add-ons are available.

What's included: The trips are fully escorted by English-speaking guides and include all accommodations, land transportation, many meals.

13-day Mayan & Chiapas Adventure

In addition to the highlights of our 7-day Mayan Adventure, we visit the jungle-draped ruins of Palenque, the charming mountain towns of Chiapa de Corzo and San Cristóbal de las Casas, the Indian villages of San Juan Chamula and Zinacantán, spectacular Cañon de Sumidero and Agua Azul Falls.

1st Day: Our tour begins with our arrival at Cancun. We have free time to enjoy the white sand beaches, blue water, and great restaurants. In the evening, we join our guide for a welcome cocktail and introduction to the tour.

2nd Day: This morning we visit the archaeological site of Ek Balam, with its enormous Acropolis pyramid. At Ik Kil Cenote, a sacred pool of Mayan royalty, we can take a refreshing swim in the clear, clean water. After arriving at our hotel in Chichén Itzá, we enjoy the light and sound show at the ruins.

3rd Day: Today we visit the ruins of Chichén Itzá, the most visited Mayan city. The Pyramid of Kukulcán, the ball court, the Observatory and the sacred well are only a few of the many sights in this huge archaeological zone. In Izamal, a magical town whose buildings are all painted yellow, we ride through the cobblestone streets in horse drawn “calesas.” Overnight in Mérida.

4th Day: Today we tour Mérida, with its colonial buildings and the Cathedral of San Idelfonso, the oldest cathedral in Mexico. Then south to Uxmal, one of the finest examples of an ancient Mayan city. In the Loltun Caves, we visit stalactite-draped chambers where the earliest evidence of humans in the New World was found. Overnight in the city of Campeche.

5th Day: In the morning we tour colonial Campeche and visit the fort built to protect the city against the real “Pirates of the Caribbean.” After relaxing at the beach, we head along the gulf coast to Villahermosa, to stroll through the Parque-Museo de la Venta, and see the famous Olmec stone heads.

6th Day: We drive to Tuxtla Gutierrez, the capital city of Chiapas, where we have lunch and visit the city’s center. In the afternoon we arrive in the small colonial town of Chiapa de Corzo. Towering over its plaza is the 16th century Moorish-style fountain.

7th Day: Riding on speedboats through the magnificent Cañon del Sumidero, where Chiapanecan Indians chose to jump off of the 2,500 foot cliffs rather than submit to Spanish invaders, we watch for monkeys, crocodiles and other wildlife. In the afternoon we visit two indigenous villages and their colorful Indian markets, then continue into the mountains to San Cristobal de las Casas, one of the prettiest cities in Mexico, to spend our next two nights.

8th Day: Free day to explore San Cristobal. Rich in culture and history, it is a delight to stroll through its markets, churches, museums and tree-filled plazas.

9th Day: Today we leave the mountains for the lowlands, stopping to swim at magnificent Agua Azul Falls—a long series of turquoise cascades, and Misol-Há, where a short trail leads behind the cascading waterfall. Then on to explore the wonderful site of Palenque. Draped with jungle foliage, its pyramids, palaces and temples are magnificent examples of Mayan artistry.

10th Day: Early morning departure to Calakmul Biosphere Reserve, the largest tropical forest reserve in Mexico, to observe wildlife and visit the archaeological zone. In the afternoon we visit Chicanná, a small site with great intact architectural detail. Overnight at a jungle lodge.

11th Day: Today we explore some of the smaller sites of the Rio Bec area, Becán, a city surrounded by a moat, and Kohunlich, on the border with Belize and known for its “Pyramid of the Masks.” We overnight in the city of Chetumal.

12th Day: After breakfast, we travel to the walled fortress of Tulum. Overlooking the turquoise Caribbean Sea, the Mayan port has over sixty well-preserved structures within its massive walls. Our farewell dinner is tonight in Cancun.

13th Day: For those departing today, we say good bye at Cancun Airport. For those wishing to extend their stay, add-ons are available.

What’s included: The trips are fully escorted by English-speaking guides and include all accommodations, land transportation, many meals.

Chiapas and Yucatan Explorer Trips

These fully escorted private tours are led by experienced bilingual guides, who enjoy sharing their extensive knowledge of the area with our guests. The trips include all transfers, accommodations, land transportation, admissions, and most breakfasts and lunches.

6-day Chiapas Explorer

Mexico's southernmost state, Chiapas is also one of its most scenic. On this trip we visit Indian villages, colonial mountain towns, beautiful waterfalls and the jungle-draped Mayan ruins of Palenque.

1st Day: We are met at the Tuxtla Gutierrez airport and travel to Cañon de Sumidero, where we board a boat for the trip down the Grijalva river. Beneath towering 2,500-foot cliffs we watch for monkeys, alligators and other tropical wildlife. Here, Chiapanecan Indians chose to jump into the sacred canyon rather than submit to Spanish invaders. Then we travel on to the delightful town of Chiapa de Corzo, where we spend our first night.

2nd Day: After breakfast we visit the villages of San Juan Chamula and Zinacantán, with their bustling Indian markets. In Chamula's colonial church, ancient Indian rituals intermix with Catholicism. We continue on to San Cristóbal de las Casas, one of the prettiest cities in Mexico, where we spend our next two nights. At an elevation of 7,000 feet and surrounded by wooded forests, San Cristóbal is cool and refreshing.

3rd Day: In the morning we tour the town's cathedral, convent, monuments and museums. Afterwards we have plenty of free time to wander the cobblestone streets, colorful markets and small, tree-filled plazas.

4th Day: Today we leave the mountains for the lowlands, stopping to swim at magnificent Agua Azul Falls—a long series of turquoise cascades set against a deep-green jungle background. After lunch we visit the Misol-Há waterfall, where we can hike the short trail that leads behind the cascading falls. Then on to the town of Palenque, where we spend the next two nights.

5th Day: We visit the archaeological park of Palenque, one of the most impressive ancient sites in Mexico. Located in the middle of a tropical rainforest, its pyramids, palaces and temples are magnificent examples of Mayan artistry.

6th Day: After breakfast we drive to the airport in Villahermosa for our flight home, sad to leave but taking along wonderful memories of our Chiapas adventure.

What's included: The trips are fully escorted by English-speaking guides and include all accommodations, transportation, five breakfasts and five lunches.

7-day Yucatan Explorer

On this trip we explore the wonders of the Yucatan—ancient Mayan pyramids, colorful colonial cities, and seacoast fortified to fight off the “Pirates of the Caribbean.” We offer two itineraries, allowing you to use either Cancun or Merida airports.

Cancun Itinerary

1st Day: We are met at the Cancun airport. After checking into our hotel, we are given an introduction to the trip and then have the rest of the day in Cancun free.

2nd Day: After breakfast, we travel to the walled fortress of Tulum, overlooking the turquoise Caribbean Sea. Then on to the ruins of Coba. Located around two lagoons, its elevated stone roads radiate out up to sixty miles. Finally, we visit the colonial town of Valladolid, once a stronghold for Mayan rebels who hid in a secret cenote (a natural well) to slaughter Spaniards at night. After lunch, we tour the town and the ex-convent of San Bernardino. Overnight in Valladolid.

3rd Day: Today we visit the archaeological site of Ek Balam, with its enormous Acropolis pyramid. Later, in the delightful city of Izamal, a magical town whose buildings are all painted yellow, we ride through the cobblestone streets in horse drawn “calesas.” Overnight in Mérida.

4th Day: This morning we visit a hacienda built for growing and processing sisal, at one time the Yucatan’s major crop. Then we drive to Uxmal, one of the finest examples of an ancient Mayan city. Inside the Pyramid of the Magician, four previous temples were discovered. From Uxmal we travel on to the ruins of Kabah, with its 250 carved masks of Chaac, the rain god. Overnight in Uxmal.

5th Day: We continue our journey to Edzna, with its beautifully preserved buildings, including its five-story Acropolis. After lunch we continue on to Campeche and visit its fort, built to protect the city against Caribbean pirates. This evening we wander the old walled city and enjoy the light-and-sound show.

6th Day: Today we travel to Chichén Itzá, the most widely visited of the Mayan cities. Enroute we stop at Becal, where workmen in caves weave panama hats. Chichén Itzá’s Pyramid of Kukulcán, ball court, Observatory and sacred well are only a few of its many sights. Tonight we enjoy a light and sound show.

7th Day: On the way back to Cancun, we stop at Ik Kil Cenote, a sacred pool of Mayan royalty, where we can swim in the clear, clean water. For those departing today, we say good bye at Cancun Airport. For those wishing to extend their stay, add-ons are available.

Merida Itinerary

1st Day: We are met at the airport in the Yucatan's capital city of Mérida. After checking into our hotel, we tour the city, with its rich Indian heritage and colonial architecture. Many of the city's buildings date back to the 17th and 18th centuries.

2nd Day: We visit the delightful city of Izamal, where all of the buildings are painted yellow, and a Franciscan convent that was built over a Mayan pyramid. We ride through the cobblestone streets in a horse-drawn carriage. Then travel on to overnight in Chichén Itzá.

3rd Day: In the morning we tour the ruins of Chichén Itzá, the most widely visited of the Mayan cities. Its Pyramid of Kukulcán, ball court, Observatory and sacred well are only a few of its many sights. After lunch we continue on to the city of Valladolid, once a stronghold for Mayan rebels who hid in a secret cenote (a natural well) to slaughter Spaniards at night. Overnight in Valladolid.

4th Day: After breakfast we visit the archaeological site of Ek Balam. Surrounded by jungle, it is very impressive, with its enormous Acropolis pyramid. After lunch we return to Mérida, where we spend the night.

5th Day: In the morning we drive to Uxmal, one of the finest examples of an ancient Mayan city. Inside the Pyramid of the Magician, four previous temples were discovered. From Uxmal we travel on to the ruins of Kabah, with its 250 carved masks of Chac, the rain god. Overnight in the town of Uxmal.

6th Day: We continue our journey to Edzna, with its beautifully preserved buildings, including its five-story Acropolis. 6th Day: We continue our journey to the city of Campeche, where we explore the Fuerte San Miguel, a fort built to protect the city against Caribbean pirates. In the evening we visit the old city walls and enjoy the light-and-sound show on the history of the pirates. Overnight in Campeche.

7th Day: Today we explore the ruins of Edzna, an economic, political and religious center. Its Great Plaza contains beautifully preserved buildings. In the afternoon we visit Uxmal, one of the largest Mayan cities of the Yucatan peninsula. Inside the Pyramid of the Magician, its highest structure, four previous temples were discovered. Overnight in the town of Uxmal.

8th Day: After breakfast we travel to Mérida, the state capital of Yucatan, where we spend the next two nights. Along the way we visit the 17th-century Hacienda Yaxcopoil, with its museum and grounds, and the village of Uman, with its colorful market and colonial church. After lunch we tour Mérida, a friendly city with a rich Indian heritage and fine colonial architecture.

9th Day: This morning we visit Celestun Biosphere Reserve, the main feeding area for the American Flamingo. Here, on the Gulf of Mexico, we board a boat to cruise up the river and through the saltwater marsh to see these colorful birds, as well many other species that reside here. We have lunch at a seafood restaurant in the nearby fishing village and have time for a swim.

10th Day: Today we travel to the delightful city of Izamal, where all of the buildings are painted yellow. We visit a Franciscan convent that was built over a Mayan pyramid, ride through the cobblestone streets in a horse-drawn carriage and visit a pyramid. Then we continue on to Chichén Itzá to spend the night.

Copper Canyon

Copper Canyon is located in northern Mexico in the Sierra Madre Mountains, a vast scenic area of pine-forested mountains cleaved by huge, deep canyons. The canyon complex known as the “Barranca del Cobre,” or Copper Canyon, is four times larger than Arizona’s Grand Canyon and almost 300 feet deeper.

This is the homeland of the Tarahumara Indians, who in spite of encroaching civilization, have managed to preserve their ancient traditional lifestyle, living in caves and simple shelters while practicing subsistence farming. They are considered to be the world’s greatest long-distance runners, racing up and down the vast area of canyons for transportation and sport.

The Chihuahua al Pacifico Railroad, which traverses the area, took nearly one hundred years to build. It passes through 86 tunnels and crosses 37 bridges as it climbs almost 8000 feet into the rugged Sierra Madres. It has been called one of the most spectacular train rides in the Western Hemisphere.

For more than two decades we have been operating the very best trips through Copper Canyon. Our guides are known throughout the area for their work with the Tarahumara Indians, and we have become a major source of information on this remote area of Mexico.

Copper Canyon Fully Escorted Tours

These fully escorted tours are led by experienced bilingual American guides, who enjoy sharing their extensive knowledge of the area with our guests. The groups are limited to a maximum of 16 persons. They include airfare from Los Angeles, Phoenix or El Paso and range in length from 7 to 14 days.

7-day Classic Tour

This trip is for just about anybody. For more than two decades we have shared this adventure with thousands of people of all ages. Since everything in Mexico is changeable, we cannot give a firm, set itinerary, but a typical itinerary is as follows:

1st Day: We fly to the city of Los Mochis, then transfer to the small colonial city of El Fuerte, where we spend the night and begin our Copper Canyon adventure.

2nd Day: In the morning we board the first-class Copper Canyon train and travel up into the Sierra Madre Mountains, passing through 86 tunnels and crossing 37 bridges. This is one of the most spectacular train rides in the Western Hemisphere. After lunch on the train, we arrive at Divisadero and stay at a picturesque lodge located right on the edge of the canyon. Here we make our first contacts with the cave-dwelling Tarahumara Indians. In the afternoon we hike along the canyon rim for magnificent views.

3rd Day: After breakfast we hike to Tarahumara caves and spectacular canyon views. In the afternoon we board the train for the ride to Creel, a lumber town high in the Sierra Madre Mountains, where we spend the next two nights.

4th Day: We explore the area surrounding Creel—an old Jesuit Mission, a Tarahumara cave dwelling and strange rock formations—and enjoy a picnic lunch at Lake Arereco. We also have the opportunity to hike to Cusarare Falls.

5th Day: Traveling to the city of Chihuahua, we stop at a Mennonite settlement for a homemade lunch, arriving in the afternoon at our deluxe hotel. The rest of the day is free to explore the city and discover its fine restaurants.

6th Day: We tour the city of Chihuahua—the State Capital with its murals, the State Museum and the home of Pancho Villa. The afternoon is free for shopping, relaxing and wandering. This evening we enjoy our traditional farewell banquet.

7th Day: We travel by van from Chihuahua to El Paso where we fly home, sad to leave but returning home with wonderful memories of this remote area of Mexico and the unique people who make it their home.

What's included: These trips are fully escorted by our experienced bilingual guides. The price includes transportation and accommodations: one night in El Fuerte, one night in Divisadero, two nights in Creel and two nights in Chihuahua; excursions, tips and most meals. Round-trip airfare from Los Angeles, Phoenix or El Paso is also included. Check with us for discounted air rates from other U.S. and Canadian cities.

14-day Everything Tour

We've extended our 11-day Ultimate Tour to allow more time for exploring and relaxing. An additional day has been added to our visits to the towns of El Fuerte, Noritari and Chihuahua.

Since everything in Mexico is changeable, we cannot give a firm, set itinerary, but a typical itinerary is as follows:

1st Day: We fly to the city of Los Mochis, then travel to the colonial city of El Fuerte, where we spend the next two nights.

2nd Day: Today we tour a Mayo Indian village, then have the rest of the day free to wander and explore El Fuerte.

3rd Day: We board the first-class Copper Canyon train for one of the most spectacular train rides in the Western Hemisphere. Leaving the train at Bahuichivo station, we drive to the Paraiso del Oso Lodge (Paradise of the Bear), located in a beautiful valley a few miles from the little village of Cerocahui.

4th Day: This morning we travel to the bottom of the canyon and the town of Urique. There is plenty of time to explore the village before returning to the Paraiso del Oso Lodge.

5th Day: We board the train for the short ride to Divisadero, where we stay at a picturesque hotel located right on the edge of the canyon. In the afternoon we hike along the canyon rim for magnificent views.

6th Day: After breakfast we hike to the Tarahumara caves and even more spectacular views of the canyon. This afternoon we board the train for Creel, a lumber town high in the Sierra Madre Mountains, where we spend the next two nights.

7th Day: We spend the day exploring the area surrounding Creel—an old Jesuit Mission, a Tarahumara cave dwelling and strange rock formations. We also enjoy an optional hike to Cusare Falls and a picnic lunch at Lake Arereco.

8th Day: Today we travel to the little town of Batopilas, passing through mountains and valleys down the winding dirt road that leads to the bottom of the canyon. For the next two nights we stay in a charming little Mexican hotel in this village where time seems to have stopped in the nineteenth century.

9th Day: We hike or ride, at our option, to the “Lost Cathedral” of Satevo and explore Batopilas and the surrounding area.

10th Day: This morning we travel back up the canyon and continue into a forested area just outside of San Juanito. For the next two nights we stay at Norítari in cozy log cabins.

11th Day: Today we visit the famous Basaseachic Waterfall. This single drop waterfall is the second highest in Mexico and ranks 29th in the world.

12th Day: Traveling to the city of Chihuahua, we stop at a Mennonite settlement for a homemade lunch, then arrive in the afternoon at our deluxe hotel and have the rest of the day free to explore the city and discover its fine restaurants.

13th Day: We tour the city of Chihuahua—the State Capital, the Spanish aqueduct, the State Museum, the home of Pancho Villa and the cathedral. We have the afternoon free to shop, relax and wander, and in the evening we enjoy our traditional farewell banquet.

14th Day: We travel by van from Chihuahua to El Paso where we fly home, sad to leave but returning home with wonderful memories of this remote area of Mexico and the unique people who make it their home.

What's included: These trips are fully escorted by our experienced bilingual guides. The price includes transportation, accommodations, excursions, tips and most meals. Round-trip airfare from Los Angeles, Phoenix or El Paso is also included. Check with us for discounted air rates from other U.S. and Canadian cities.

Baja California

Bordered on the west by the Pacific Ocean and on the east by the Sea of Cortez (also known as the Gulf of California), the Baja peninsula is the Mexican version of the Galapagos—rich in natural history and unspoiled beauty. It was here that California received its name from the mythical island in the stories of the 15th-century Spanish romantic author, Garcia Ordonez de Montalvo, who wrote about a wondrous island of gold and pearls ruled by a beautiful black Amazon queen named Calafia.

Besides its beautiful beaches and resorts, the peninsula is the destination of the California Grey Whales' annual migration from the chilly waters of the arctic to the warm bays of Baja.

In addition to its history and natural beauty, Baja is a wonderful destination for relaxing weekend getaways, and our Baja trips can be added on to our Copper Canyon adventures at special low prices.

Whale Watching

On this trip we spend three nights in a resort hotel in Loreto, the original capital of California. On one of our days we travel to Puerto Lopez Mateos on Magdalena Bay to board a panga boat and search for California Gray Whales. We usually see a great many of them, and they sometimes come close enough for us to touch. We also have plenty of time to relax around the pool, explore the town and enjoy great seafood and margaritas. Includes accommodations, whale watching, transfers and airfare from Los Angeles.

Departures: Daily, Late January thru early March

Special Copper Canyon Add-on: This trip is also available as an add-on to our Copper Canyon trips. We stay in La Paz instead of Loreto, and the trip is one day longer.
